

WALKER GREENBANK PLC
("the Company")

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD
("the Committee")

1. Membership

- 1.1 The committee shall comprise at least two members, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors. Members of the committee shall be appointed by the board, on the recommendation of the nomination committee and in consultation with the chairman of the remuneration committee.
- 1.2 Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3 Appointments to the committee are made by the board and shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up three-years, provided the director still meets the criteria for membership of the committee.
- 1.4 The board shall appoint the committee chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the committee chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the board. The chairman of the board shall not be chairman of the committee.
- 1.5 As at 6 December 2018, the members of the Committee are
Terry Stannard
Chris Rogers
Vijay Thakrar
- 1.6 As at 6 December 2018, the Chairman of the Committee is
Terry Stannard

2. Secretary

The company secretary or his or her nominee shall act as the secretary of the committee.

3. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two. A duly convened meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the committee.

4. Meetings

The committee shall meet at least once a year and otherwise as required.

5. Notice of meetings

- 5.1 Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chairman.
- 5.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees, as appropriate, at the same time.

6. Minutes of meetings

- 6.1 The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Draft minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the board unless it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. Annual general meeting

The committee chairman should attend the annual general meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the committee's activities.

8. Duties

The committee should carry out the duties as detailed in Annex A for the parent company, major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole, as appropriate.

9. Reporting responsibilities

- 9.1 The committee chairman shall report to the board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 9.2 The committee shall make whatever recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 9.3 If requested by the Board, the committee shall produce a report of the company's remuneration policy and practices to be included in the company's annual report.

10. Other matters

The committee shall

- 10.1 have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for assistance as required
- 10.2 be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members
- 10.3 give due consideration to laws and regulations, the provisions of the Code and the requirements of the LSE AIM Rules, the FCA Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure and Transparency Rules and any other applicable Rules, as appropriate
- 10.4 arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the board for approval.

11. Authority

The committee is authorised by the board to obtain, at the company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference.

ANNEX A
DUTIES OF THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

The committee shall

1. determine and agree with the board the framework or broad policy for the remuneration of the company's chief executive, the executive directors, the company secretary and such other members of the executive management as it is designated to consider. The remuneration of non-executive directors shall be a matter for the executive members of the board. No director or manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration
2. in determining such policy, take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the QCA Corporate Governance Code and associated guidance. The objective of such policy shall be to ensure that members of the executive management of the company are provided with appropriate incentives to encourage enhanced performance and are, in a fair and responsible manner, rewarded for their individual contributions to the success of the company
3. when setting remuneration policy for directors, review and have regard to the remuneration trends across the company or group
4. review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy
5. within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the chief executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of the chief executive, each executive director, company secretary and other designated senior executives including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards.
6. obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies. To help it fulfil its obligations the committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary, within any budgetary restraints imposed by the board
7. be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the committee
8. approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes

9. review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors, company secretary and other designated senior executives and the performance targets to be used
10. determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director and other designated senior executives
11. ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the company, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised
12. oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the company or group
13. agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the directors
